

SUMMER SCHOOL OF SLAVONIC STUDIES

Faculty of Arts of Charles University

Institute of Czech Studies

Prague 2017

The 61st session of the Summer School of Slavonic Studies (the LŠSS) held under the auspices of the Rector of Charles University prof. MUDr. Tomáš Zima, DrSc., MBA is designed for the specialists of the Slavic and Bohemistic field, postgraduate and undergraduate students, translators and for everybody, who is interested in the Czech language, literature, history and culture. In addition to a survey of contemporary research in Czech language and literature and Czech history, it provides many cultural opportunities. A wide range of instruction, including practical language courses, optional seminars and specialized lectures, will be offered by teaching staff from Charles University and from research institutes of the Czech Academy of Science. The Executive Committee of the LŠSS headed by Mgr. Svatava Škodová, Ph.D. will ensure the academic standard and content of courses given at the School.

TERM

28 July - 25 August 2017

The LŠSS starts on Friday 28 July 2017. The official opening ceremony /and placement test/ is scheduled for Saturday 29 July.

Classes begin on Monday 31 July, and end on Thursday 24 August.

The closing ceremony will take place in the afternoon on Thursday 24 August. The day of departure is Friday 25 August 2017.

PLACE

Charles University in Prague, Faculty of Arts, nám. Jana Palacha 2, Praha 1

PROGRAMME

Instruction takes place each morning 9:00–13:30, from Monday to Friday, and consists of:

- A. practical language courses,
- B. optional seminars,
- C. specialized lectures,
- D. specialized workshops.

The programme features 25 lessons (of 45 minutes) of language classes, workshops, excursion and cultural field trips.. A total number of lessons is 120.

After the official ceremony, students will be divided into four levels according to the results of the initial placement test. The aim of the test is to determine the level of proficiency in grammar, vocabulary, and comprehension of written text. A short conversation with a lecturer is also a part of the test.

Within each level, students will be divided into several courses according to the number of participants and their proficiency, maximal amount of students within a group is 15. In the beginning, low-intermediate and intermediate levels, the differentiation will be according to the language of instruction, which may be English, French, Russian or German. Instruction in the advanced level courses will be exclusively in Czech.

After four weeks of the Summer Language School students will get the certificate of achievement with an evaluation report (A, A – : Excellent; B, B – : Very Well; C, C – : Good). They can achieve 8 ECTS credits.

The secretariat of the LŠSS will assist anyone interested in independent research in archives, libraries and it will arrange individual consultations with Czech specialists, as far as possible.

The LŠSS instruction is completed by a social-cultural program organized in the afternoons, evenings, and during weekends. Students of all levels can participate without differences. Interpreters are available during this program. Participation in these activities is voluntary. In the clubroom of the residence hall, screenings of Czech films, evenings of Czech music, as well as evenings of singing Czech folk songs will be held. The LŠSS also organizes visits to historical monuments and galleries in Prague. Every Saturday students can choose one of two field trips and every Sunday one of two afternoon trips to attractive places in the Czech Republic, including historical towns, castles, chateaux, monasteries, spas, and places of natural beauty.
